Failure to pay this tax within the prescribed term means elimination from the competition.

The Contest Running:

After the pre-selection, a number of 24 competitors will be selected by the jury after the pre-selection. The names of the competitors admitted in the contest will be made public on the festival's web page as well as on the County Centre for Preservation and Promotion of Traditional Culture and Braila County Council's web pages. The order in which the competitors will enter in the contest is decided by drawing of lots.

The competitors will follow the organizers' indications regarding the order in the contest and the rehearsals.

The Repertory

Romanian Competitors

Each competitor has to prepare, for the contest, 2 songs of light music (pop) from the recognized Romanian repertory out of which one song should belong to George Grigoriu. The repertory of George Grigoriu can be found on the contest's web page or directly at the County Centre for Preservation and Promotion of Traditional Culture on CD or paper. Personal compositions are not accepted.

Foreign Competitors

Each competitor will sing:

- a song from the repertoire of their country of origin, in the native language of the competitor, selected from the 2 songs sent for the pre-selection, choice which will be transmitted to the organizers immediately after receiving the confirmation of participating in the competition;
- a song written by George Grigoriu. The repertory of the composer George Grigoriu can be found on the contest's web page or directly at the County Centre for Preservation and Promotion of Traditional Culture.

The instrumentation for the foreign competitors' songs can be done by own means and transmitted to the Organizer up to the 28th of April 2017.

The orchestra that assures the accompaniment is formed of: acoustic piano, keyboards, drums, percussion, guitar, lead guitar, bass guitar, saxophone, (alto or soprano). The organizer can also assure the instrumentation only if the competitor transmits the chosen songs (one song from own repertory and one from George Grigoriu's repertory) up to the 28th of April 2017. It is recommended that the foreign contestant to sing the song from own repertory into his/her native language.

The competitors' obligations are:

- To abide by the provisions of the contest regulation;
- In the case of the contestants under 18 years old, the organizers will assure the accommodation and meals of one accompanying person.
- In the case that the contestants who have reached 18 years old are accompanied by the manager, a family member etc, these persons will cover themselves the expenses for accommodation and meals during their stay.
- The competitors will cover the transport expenses.
- To respect the conditions regarding the arrival time, accommodation term and meals, as established by the Organiser, during the period of the Festival-contest.
- To sign broadcasting rights cession agreements settled by the organizers;

The Laureates who are not present at the Prize Awarding Ceremony are going to be disqualified;

Any break of these obligations leads to the unappealable exclusion from the contest.

The organizers' obligations are:

- To assure the transportation of the foreign competitors, from the airport and North Train Station in Bucharest to Braila and back, in the interval 23rd-29th of May 2017.
- To assure accommodation and meals for the contestants in the interval 23rd-28th of May 2017 (inclusive)
- To organize and make available the music hall and the rehearsal spaces necessary for the festival;
- To assure a proper run of the pre-selection and their objectivity;
- To assure the security and the protection during the festival, including during rehearsals;
- To assure the silence for the good contest running by totally preventing the press and photo reporters from entering in the stage wings, except for the authorized reporters, television and radio;
- To assure the accuracy of votes for the partial and final results;
- To assure the prizes.
- The organizers are not responsible to the events or incidents in which the contestants may be implied outside the show.

The Jury

- The Jury is made of Romanian and foreign light music personalities, radio and TV editors, and local cultural personalities.
- The President of the contest jury will be also in the pre-selection jury.
- The Jury's member who is involved in the competitor's artistic training or management is in charge with, can no longer vote for this competitor. The contestant will receive the average of the other jury members' grades.
- Ex Aequo prizes are not allowed.
- In case of points equality for one or more competitors, the separation will be done according to the grade belonging to the President of the jury. If this criterion is not sufficient the separation will be through the direct decision of the President of the jury.
- The members of the jury keep the confidentiality of grades and charts derived from the judging procedure.
- All decisions are final and without right of appeal.
